Redding Fair Housing workshop aids landlords, tenants

Landlords, tenants, property managers and others will benefit from a wide range of information available at the annual Fair Housing Workshop to be held Thursday, April 14, 2016.

The workshop runs from 8:15 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the City Council Chambers at Redding City Hall. It is presented by the Shasta Fair Housing Alliance, which includes the Housing Authority of the City of Redding, Legal Services of Northern California, Northern Valley Catholic Social Service, Renters HQ and T&F Property Management.

Representatives of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), the Department of Fair Employment and Housing, Santa Monica City Attorney's Office and Legal Services of Northern California will present information on a number of topics relating to housing discrimination and retaliation, reasonable accommodation, service animals, tenant rights and fair housing laws. Periods for questions and answers will be provided.

Anyone involved with rental housing is encouraged to attend. Registration is $15, which includes written materials and a lunch. Scholarships for low-income tenants are available. To register, or for more information, contact Legal Services of Northern California at 530-241-3565.
